Generation No. 1

1. JOHN[2] SLOCOMB (GILES[1] SLOCUM) was born 22 September 1682 in Bedford (Source: IGI on the Internet.), and died circa. 1754. He married ELIZABETH CARTER 24 December 1714 in Lincoln's Inn, Holborn, Middlesex. (Source: Pat Beard.). She died 1755.

Notes for JOHN SLOCOMB:
Text of the Will of John Slocombe (Original held at Hertfordshire County Records Office)
"In the name of God Amen, I John Slocomb of Sacomb Pound, in the Parish of Sacomb in the County of Hertford, Victualler being I thank God of sound Mind Memory and understanding. Do make and Declare this my last Will and Testament in manners and form following, that is to say in the first place of Will order that all such Debts as I shall justify once at the time of my decease to any person or persons whomsoever shall be duly paid and satisfied, as soon as convenient may be after my decease. And do hereby Give and Bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Slocombe to my son John Slocombe and my daughter Mary Slocombe and to my Daughter Martha Slocombe the sum of one shilling a piece of Lawful money of Great Britain, All which said several pecuniary legacies I will shall be paid to the said representative Legatees in Twelve months next after my Decease. And all the rest and residue of my goods chattells and ready moneys and all other of my personal estate of what nature kind or quality so ever and where ever fully debts due unto others, my legacies herein Bequeathed unto my Dear and Loving wife Elizabeth Slocombe to do with and Dispose thereof at her own will and pleasure. Also I make constitute and appoint my said wife Elizabeth Slocombe full and sole excutrix of this my last will and testament, And finally I do hereby Provoke, Renounce and make utterly void all former and other wills by me appointed, ordained or made Declaring this present Testament to be my true and only last Will. In witness where of I the said John Slocombe the Testator have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal this Twelfth day of May in the twenty sixth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland. King Defender of the faith and so forth, and in the Year of Our Lord Christ, one thousand, seven hundred and fifty three."
